

re(in)novation

101 Places a RE(IN)NOVATION Could Give Georgia Tech |

1. A place that is the physical and cultural heart of campus. 2. A place where everyone knows the good word. 3. A place with plenty of offices for our 400 student organizations. 4. A place with more space to study. 5. A place that is more sustainable. 6. A place to create. 7. A place filled with leadership and involvement opportunities. 8. A place to connect with our history. 9. A place with more outdoor seating. 10. A place to dance. 11. A place to swarm. 12. A place that is an investment in the future of Tech. 13. A place to connect with each other. 14. A place for alumni to visit and be proud of. 15. A place with (at least) one more ballroom. 16. A place with a Food Lab for Tech Chef, Cooking Classes, and more. 17. A place for everyone/anyone to meditate. 18. A place to fall in love. 19. A place with more large meeting rooms. 20. A place with shade for our outdoor seating. 21. A place that understands you can never have too much study space. 22. A place with gender neutral restrooms. 23. A place with more storage for student organizations. 24. A place that honors Tech's traditions and space to build new ones. 25. A place to try something new. 26. A place with a rotunda or central gathering space. 27. A place that is big enough for our campus population. 28. A place to hang out on the roof. 29. A place with more natural lighting. 30. A place where you can see Tech's accomplishments. 31. A place with bigger restrooms. 32. A place where everyone feels welcome. 33. A place for grad students! 34. A place with more food options. 35. A place with the hottest technology to play with. 36. A place with the hottest technology helping us. 37. A place with pre-function space for large events. 38. A place with more group workspace. 39. A place to fix up our bike. 40. A place that conserves natural resources. 41. A place to serve the entire Georgia Tech community. 42. A place that is accessible to everyone. 43. A place that produces as much energy as it consumes. 44. A place with showers in the restrooms. 45. A place to find balance. 46. A place with secret passageways. 47. A place to recharge. 48. A place with many ways to recharge. 49. A place that is visually appealing. 50. A place that provides social learning experience (Man cannot live by science alone). 51. A place with that embodies Tech pride. 52. A place with double doors to keep out the elements. 53. A place that reflects Georgia Tech's reputation for advanced technology and progress. 54. A place to supplement study space in Clough Commons (Clough is not enough!). 55. A place for George P. Burdell to hang his hat. 56. A place with a bigger theater. 57. A place with storage for commuter students. 58. A place to learn about other cultures. 59. A place with family restrooms. 60. A place with plenty of outlets. 61. A place for faculty and staff to interact with students. 62. A place with at least 10 ft²/student (the standard). 63. A place with creative services for student organizations. 64. A place with a nap room (or several). 65. A place with larger service hallways. 66. A place for the elements of campus life to mix. 67. A place that is far cooler than UGA's Tate Center. 68. A place with more queueing space in the Food Court. 69. A place full of entertainment. 70. A place that never sleeps. 71. A place that sets the standard among college unions. 72. A place to meet new people. 73. A place to hide away. 74. A place with endless possibilities. 75. A place to play piano. 76. A place with healthy indoor environments (produced and maintained with fewer chemicals). 77. A place with bigger and better positioned catering and service kitchens. 78. A place that showcases the Student Center's top-notch service and programs. 79. A place with updated restrooms. 80. A place that saves on operating and utility costs. 81. A place to grow as a person. 82. A place to engage in civil discourse. 83. A place to foster friendships. 84. A place with more multipurpose meeting rooms. 85. A place that can sustain campus life for years to come. 86. A place with more advertising space for student events. 87. A place with close to zero waste through better waste management solutions. 88. A place with better package pickup solutions. 89. A place with more storage for major campus events. 90. A place to be ourselves. 91. A place with a multi-faith multi-purpose space. 92. A place with more/more accessible elevators. 93. A place that promotes sustainable student events through shared resources. 94. A place with plenty of study space (have we mentioned that before?). 95. A place to support student success. 96. A place made with local materials. 97. A place with a hub for co-curricular leadership. 98. A place that make us feel good (body and soul). 99. A place for you to find your niche. 100. A place where the pipes are younger than our students. 101. A place that is as cool, modern, and forward-thinking as Tech itself!

"Today's Union is the gathering place of the college."

-from "The Role of the College Union", ACUI